

Transforming the Missing Landscape

the first joint national conference

This major conference brings together key speakers, relevant topics, workshops and stimulating debate – all to help resolve missing person cases.

Wednesday 29th and Thursday 30th April 2009

NPIA, Ryton-on-Dunsmore, Coventry www.npia.police.uk/en/8432.htm

This annual event is one of the few opportunities where professionals from across the 'missing' spectrum are able to get together to share experiences, knowledge and best practice. What's more, this year's promises to be the biggest and best yet!

The itinerary will include:

- Workshops
- Key note speakers

Topics covered will include:

- Child Abduction Alert update
- A real-life missing case-study
- Honour-based violence
- A Free Text Service for Runaways
- 'Living in Limbo' report
- UKHTC
- CEOP
- NPIA Specialist Services

and more...

How much will it cost?

The conference represents excellent value at just £195.00 per person to attend. That includes all refreshments, lunch on both days, formal dinner and accommodation on Wednesday evening, but excludes your own travelling costs.

Who will benefit by attending?

The conference is a must for practitioners and policy-makers dealing with the issue of missing people and promises to be a 'must-attend' event of the year.

It will be of particular interest to those at Inspector level and above within police forces, executives within children's services and other care departments, as well as those working for NGOs who operate in this area.

Why should I attend?

Apart from the value of the programme content and its relevance to you, it's also an ideal networking opportunity.
